

COASTAL CULTURE NETWORK

NETWORKING EVENT : RAMSGATE

Are you interested in the role of culture in developing and regenerating coastal communities?

The Coastal Culture Network, Garsington Opera for All and Ramsgate Arts would like to invite you to a networking event to share experiences, explore the role of culture in place-shaping and discuss how the cultural offer on the coast can be strengthened.

Tuesday 14 November
4-6pm (networking until 7pm)

Royal Temple Yacht Club

Westcliff Mansions, Ramsgate, Kent CT11 9HY

Presentations

Suzy Humphries, Ramsgate Arts

Ellie Jones, Looping the Loop Festival

- Case Study: Opera for All

Sarah Dance, Chair, Kent Cultural Transformation Board

- How cultural organisations are working strategically and cross-sectorially in Kent and Medway

Alastair Upton, Director, Creative Foundation Folkestone

- Case Study: The Creative Foundation and Great Place East Kent

Louisa Hrabowy, Programme Manager, Ramsgate Heritage Action Zone

- How heritage can contribute to regeneration

The event is open to all including artists and arts organisations, local authorities, community organisations, Coastal Community Teams and other strategic partners.

To book your place, email ccn@hastings.gov.uk

Supported by:

